We have long stood at the head of the magazine world for our contributions; they are always moral and instructive, and such as may be placed before a family without hesitation. This department is under the control of Mrs. Sarah Josuffia Hale, whose name alone is a sufficient guarantee for the propriety of the Lady's Book. We may say the same of our engravings. We will never, as is done by a cotemporary, publish indecent model-artist pictures, such as no parent would allow a child to look at.

Goder's Lady's Book for 1850 shall surpass that of 1849, and exceed all magazines-past, present and to come.
